

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Anchor QEA's Scholarship Program Mission

To give back to our profession and communities by assisting graduate students in their pursuit of higher education and potential contribution to solving challenging environmental problems.

Donation

Anchor QEA has established a $6,000 scholarship fund to assist graduate students in their pursuit of higher education. Individual scholarship awards will range in value from $500 to $6,000 and will be provided to the recipient's institution of higher learning to be disbursed to the student for graduate school tuition and supplies.

Eligibility

- Full-time graduate student or person accepted to a United States graduate school
- Undergraduate GPA equivalent of B average or higher
- Major: related to Anchor QEA's practice areas.

Instructions

Fill out the application form below by typing your responses into the shaded boxes. Please include the following in your application submittal:

- Letter(s) of recommendation (professional/academic) from professors, employers, etc.
